Please consider this information carefully before deciding whether to participate in this research.

The purpose of this research is to examine which factors influence social judgment and decision-making. You will be asked to make judgements about individuals and actions in social scenarios. We are simply interested in your judgement. The study will take less than 1 hour to complete, and you will receive less than $20 on Prolific. Your compensation and time commitment are specified in the study description. There are no anticipated risks associated with participating in this study. The effects of participating should be comparable to those you would ordinarily experience from viewing a computer monitor and using a mouse or keyboard for a similar amount of time. At the end of the study, we will provide an explanation of the questions that motivate this line of research and will describe the potential implications.

Your participation in this study is completely voluntary and you may refuse to participate or you may choose to withdraw at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to you which are otherwise entitled. Your participation in this study will remain confidential. No personally identifiable information will be associated with your data. Also, all analyses of the data will be averaged across all the participants, so your individual responses will never be specifically analyzed.

If you have questions or concerns about your participation or payment, or want to request a summary of research findings, please contact [redacted]

Instructions

In this study, you'll read eight short stories and then be asked some simple questions about each story.

Please read carefully.

Scenario 1 Knowledge

Please read the following scenario:

Josh is on the way to the airport to catch a flight to a hunting safari in Africa. He knows that he has left with plenty of time to make it there, but his car breaks down on the highway. Now Josh is sitting in his car near a busy intersection, and knows he needs to get to the airport soon if he is going to catch his flight.

In this situation, what are some things you believe Josh could do? Please list 5.

Scenario 1 Ignorance

Please read the following scenario:

Josh is on the way to the airport to catch a flight to a hunting safari in Africa. He incorrectly believes that he has left without any wiggle room to make it there; unbeknownst to him, the plane actually will not board for four more hours, so he has plenty of time. Then, his car breaks down on the highway. Now Josh is sitting in his car near a busy intersection, and knows he needs to get to the airport soon if he is going to catch his flight.

Scenario 11 Ignorance

Please read the following scenario:

Annie is sitting on a bench at a park when a man asks her to watch his 7 year old daughter, Maria, while he uses the restroom. Annie agrees and Maria sits next to her on the bench. While the father is gone, a different man comes up and starts talking to Maria, telling her that he has candy in his car, and Maria says she wants to try some. Annie doesn't want to let Maria follow the man, and she does not remember seeing a police officer walking on the other side of the park ten minutes ago.

Scenario 12 Knowledge

Please read the following scenario:

Tony is dogsitting for his neighbors, who are away on vacation for a week. Before they left, they gave Tony a key to their house, which he believes he has in his pocket. When he arrives at their door to walk the dog, he realizes that he does not have the key. Tony knows that the family left a spare key, but doesn't know where it is. The dog is barking and scratching the door, clearly needing to use the bathroom immediately.
